Dear Arthur:

Many thanks for your good note of 25 June and for all the help which you gave Kirkpatrick when he was with you. I received a most interesting report from him of his visit to Cuba.

I have on my agenda as a matter of priority a visit to Havana next spring but I look forward to seeing you in the meantime.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Allen:

Can't let your excellent man Lyman Kirkpatrick go without a word of praise. He has been splendid in everything he's undertaken. To do this with his present handicap certainly shows amazing character - a case of real guts.

Still hoping you can get down yourself sometime for a few days a little later to press home the advantage we now have.

With warm personal regards,

Most cordially,

Arthur Gardner
American Ambassador

Dear Allen:

Am most distressed to hear you can't get down here but will certainly hold you to a visit next fall. In the meantime will have to carry on without your inspiring presence.

25X1 Please be sure to give my regards to [] [] whom I've known for a long time and who was down here for a short time this winter.

With warm personal regards,

Most cordially,

Arthur Gardner
